

"My Police Mutual... means just two pints a week less, but thousands of pounds better off. I wouldn't have started saving if it wasn't for them"

Nick, Constable, West Midlands

What does Police Mutual mean to you?

With personal credit harder to come by, more and more people are turning to savings to provide them with the security they need for the future – but in a world that's gone crazy, who can you trust with your money?

Police Mutual was set up by members of the Police Service over 85 years ago and we're the largest provider of financial products and services exclusively to the Police Service. Over 210,000 of your colleagues and their families are already members. And with no shareholders to satisfy, we'll be paying out over £130 million to our members again this year.

If you're not a member yet – what are you waiting for?
